The Year 12 Graduation took place at GMHBA Stadium on Monday evening. The event was well attended and provided a wonderful opportunity for the students, their families and school staff to come together to celebrate the achievements of the Class of 2022. I would like to congratulate the Year 12 students for the dedication they have shown to their schooling throughout the past thirteen years, and acknowledge the resilience exhibited by these students throughout the pandemic.

Congratulations to the following students who were nominated to receive the prestigious JG Forster Award for 2022:

Emma Anderson, 12N
Sam Jansen, 12M
Rose Robertson, 12P

This year's winner was Hannah Gorst. Hannah is one of Belmont High School's 2022 School Captains and a very worthy winner of the JG Forster Award having displayed general all-round scholastic ability, exemplary behaviour and represented our school with pride in a number of areas and activities.

Thank you to Jess Scannell and her team for organising this event and thank you also to the students, family members and staff who came along to the evening. Year 11 Early Commencement Program (ECP)

The Early Commencement Program (ECP) for the 2023 Year 11 students will be commencing on 28th November and be running for one week. This program provides the students an opportunity to commence their Year 11 studies early and will give them a head start on their learning for 2023.

Year 5 Public Speaking Workshop

On Wednesday, Belmont High School hosted a public speaking workshop for aspiring Year 5 leaders from four of our local primary schools. This workshop was led by our specialist English teachers and was organised by Acting Assistant Principal, Andrew Maki. The workshop provided the students the opportunity to develop their skills in structuring and presenting a speech, and also allowed the Year 5s a chance to get to know student leaders from Years 9 and 10. I wish to thank the primary schools, Year 5 students and their families for taking up this fantastic opportunity and congratulate the student leaders and staff involved for running such a fantastic workshop.

Congratulations

I wish to congratulate Sienna Hosie from 10 Silver on being selected to participate in the University of Melbourne Kwong Lee Dow Young Scholars Program, Class of 2024. Over the next two years, Sienna will be supported to reach her leadership potential through participating in a program of events and activities offered by the University.

I also wish to congratulate Jarvis Stewart from 7P who competed at the Australian Track & Field championships in Brisbane last weekend. Jarvis made it through to the final of the 100m running, a big PB of 12.73seconds and was part of the 4x100m really team that took Silver. Amazing effort!

Josh Baker
Acting Principal

BHS Early Commencement Program

The VCE-VM Early Commencement Program has run over the last two weeks to introduce a range of opportunities available for students moving into their final year of study at Belmont High. The program has included a number of guest presenters around pathway opportunities and working in teams to plan for Learning Tasks 'ready to hit the ground running' in 2023. The highlight of the two weeks was the planning of an external learning opportunity in Melbourne for next year. Details below.

We had a spectacular experience, we focused on our time management and organisation throughout the day. We chose the activities that would be of best interest for the new year 11s. Sarah, Tash, and I would highly recommend this experience as we learnt and discovered a lot In Melbourne. After the success of this excursion, we have been given the opportunity to go bowling to finish our early commencement program on a high and work on our team building skills! BELMONT HIGH SCHOOL
Middle Years

What a busy and exiting time in the Middle Years! As always there has been plenty happening for our wonderful Year 7 and 8 students.

This week has seen our Year 7s complete an introduction session to the LifeChanger program that they will complete in Year 8. They had a great time learning about checking in with themselves and others and working as a team to tackle some tricky challenges! We are continually impressed with our student's ability to demonstrate resilience and take on new challenges.

On the theme of taking new challenges, we congratulate all of our Year 8 students who had the courage to apply for the role of Junior School Captain for 2023. Their speeches were outstanding and were once again a brilliant display of the quality of students we have here at BHS. We are so thrilled to have so many aspiring leaders coming through the junior years!

As we move in to the final few weeks of term, we would also like to commend our Middle Years cohort on their continued effort and desire to strive for the highest whilst completing their final CFAs and CATs. We have seen our Year 7s write some fantastic Narrative pieces, demonstrating their skills from Literacy this year and build some fantastic marble runs and boats to show off their Maths and Science skills! Our Year 8s have been working hard to put together their magazines which are looking very impressive as well as getting excited to complete a heart dissection as a part of their Biology Science unit.

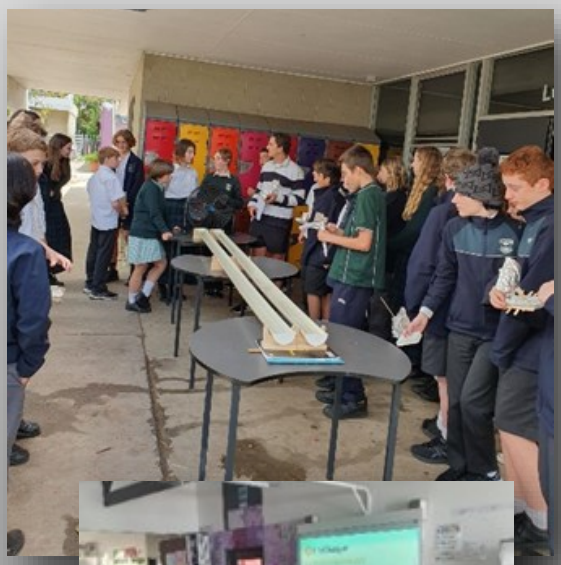
Be sure to keep your eyes peeled on the Compass calendar for important dates over the coming weeks for our Middle Years students including Year 7 into 8 and Year 8 into Year 9 Orientation and end of year activities days.

Please also mark in your calendars the Middle Years Expo date, Tuesday 6th December. Our students are beginning to put together a display of their learning throughout the year and can't wait to share it with you all on that day! If you have any questions about this please don't hesitate to contact your child's Core teacher.

Thanks for your continued communication and support.

Middle Years Leaders,

Jenna Killender, Dan De Gois and Erin McKenzie



Year 8 SEALP Excursion to Hepburn Springs and Daylesford 7th November '22

'Part of Italy's History' …Heritage Building…The Old Macaroni Factory

During the 1850's, two Italian political refugee brothers Pietro and Giacomo Lucini fled Italy, namely their hometown called Intra, on Lake Maggiore in northern Italy. There was a Revolution at the time and as the revolution was lost, the two brothers decided to flee Italy and come to Australia. Pietro and Giacomo settled in Hepburn Springs near Daylesford. They could speak Italian and English very well, and felt very fortunate and free to do as they pleased! They felt like Kings! In 1859, they built the Macaroni Factory, today a heritage building, known as The Old Macaroni Factory (macaroni was the name given to all shapes and forms of pasta in those times). In Victoria's goldfields, the Lucini brothers prospered making and selling pasta, salami and olive oil to miners and invested in mines. They ran the Hepburn Democratic Club from the factory, discussing politics and raising funds for widows and orphans of dead patriots in Italy.

In this building, though called a factory, it really didn't resemble one as it was a villa with thirteen rooms. There is a kitchen, a dining room and a room to make the pasta of course and many more! Over six generations have been passed down by the two brothers to house their viable pasta-making business. Giacomo's great grand-daughter called Maria Viola recently sold the Factory to two lovely ladies; Jennie Wilmoth and Jenni Draper. Jennie Wilmoth gave our Year 8 SEALP students an historical talk while asking the students some questions about the history of the heritage building.

Below is a painting on a ceiling executed by Giacomo in the 1860s, depicting verdant scenes from the siblings home town of Intra, on Lake Maggiore in northern Italy.

The four flags representing France, Italy, the Union Jack as Australia was still under the reign of England and Christianity (Italian Church).

This is also the building in which the famous movie "Love's Brother" was filmed.

Giordano at the Lake House Walk.

Harry and the Cascade.

Below are some comments made by our Year 8 SEALP students reflecting on their experiences on the day with some class pics of the students above.

The Old Macaroni Pasta Factory Historical Talk/Tour was short and concise without leaving out any important information, so I enjoyed it, the mineral water tasted good even though the others were very verbal about not liking it. The walk at the Lake House was nice and relaxing, and I enjoyed stealing one of the only pies from my other classmates. Gordon (Giordano).

Daylesford was lots of fun! I especially enjoyed the hour we had to wander around the stores. Lunch was delicious; I had a beef and veggie pasty and a fresh apple juice. The Old Macaroni Factory was fascinating and I thought it was interesting to see how they were going to restore it. The mineral water wasn't very nice but it was fun walking through the gardens. Jules

The Old Macaroni Pasta Factory Historical Talk/ tour

The factory was beautiful, and the talk educated us. It was a little bit hard to hear what she was saying because of the local traffic, but what I did hear was really educational. What she told us about the ceiling on the roof and what each one meant was really interesting.

The mineral water collection experience

It was fun walking around with our class, and seeing the reactions to drinking the mineral water. It had beautiful landscaping and was quiet and relaxing to walk through.

The walk at the Lakehouse swimming area, with the cascades

The walk at the Lakehouse swimming area was fun. It was nice to see the rushing waters and stand and watch them. It was nice to walk as a big group and laugh with all the girls. The water was beautiful to look at and the overall atmosphere of the place was really nice.

The meal at the Harvest Cafe`

The Harvest Café experience was fun. I enjoyed the meal and had fun laughing with the other girls. It was really fun to spend time together in a big group of girls and sit and eat together. Jacinta

Kabar Indonesia

In Week 6, Rob Henry aka Chooka came to speak to the Year 10 Indonesian classes about living with a remote Indigenous tribe in the Mentawai Islands, Indonesia. He lived with the tribe for many years and filmed his life there, resulting in the documentary As Worlds Divide. He spoke about the impact of modernisation on lifestyles and the indigenous people's struggle for cultural preservation. He showed his traditional tribal tattoos and explained that they used a mixture of soot and sugar cane juice to create the ink. All of them have a specific meaning and act as a story, allowing neighbouring tribes to identify where you are from. He covered a lot of topics- from illness, traditional medicines, shamans, hunting, social structure, and language. It was fascinating and eye opening to hear about such a different world and reflect on the structures in place in our Western world. As a gesture of thanks for his visit, the class donated to the Indigenous Education Foundation, an organisation dedicated to assisting indigenous groups around the world preserve their culture. A big terima kasih to Pak Fanning who helped coordinate Chooka's visit.

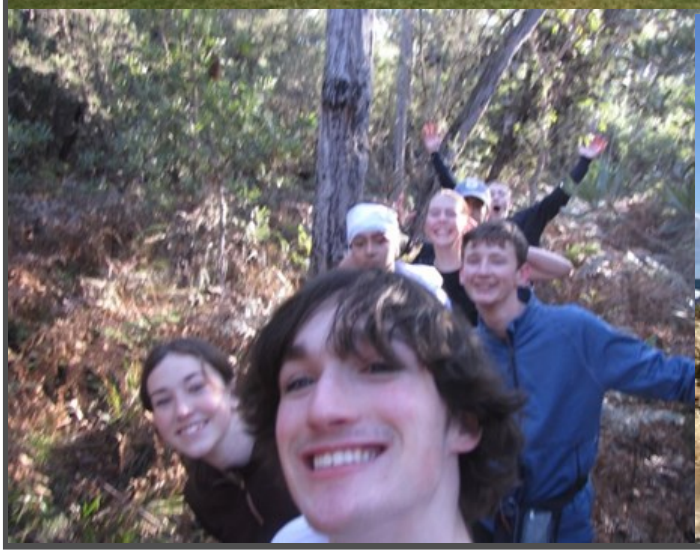
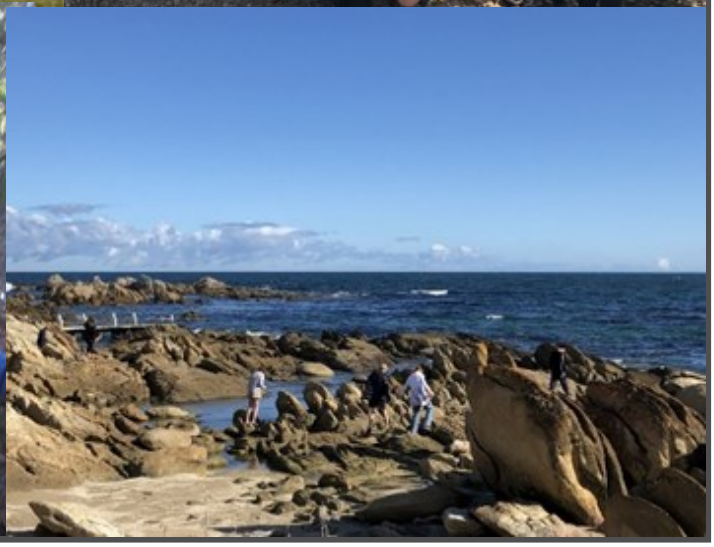
School for Student Leadership

In Term 3 of 2022, five Belmont Year 9 students spent nine weeks in East Gippsland, taking the term off normal life and school to try something different. Nine weeks sounds like a long time, but for us, it was over before we knew it. The program we were all lucky to attend is called the School for Student Leadership, run by the Victorian Department of Education and Training, and Belmont High has been lucky enough to receive another six positions for next year. This means that, in Term 3 of 2023, three male and three female students will have the chance to experience the same program, at the Alpine School/ Dinner Plain campus.

The SSL has four campuses, including the Snowy River campus (the one we went to) and the Dinner Plain campus (situated in the Victorian alps, it's the original campus, and the one available for next year's students). At our beautiful campus on the mouth of the Snowy River, we had an absolute blast, and were constantly doing amazing activities; surfing, caving, canoeing, bike riding, even three-day-long overnight hikes, called 'expos', to name a few. It was a truly life-changing experience, and we all grew heaps as people, developing our leadership skills and generally having loads of fun. It might be a bit awkward at the start, but within a few weeks, we had all grown so close by living together - making friends was no problem at all for any of us. We all learned so much from living abroad with around 40 new people, and none of us regret it for a second.

If you aren't a leader now, you will be by the end of it! The camp will push you out of your comfort zone, but everybody there is like-minded and super supportive of one another. Some of the skills we improved on included public speaking, self-reflection, mentoring others, and generally trying all sorts of new things. Because everybody wants to be there, there is such a great, positive, growth environment, where everybody is confident to be themselves and grow. The teachers and other students all have unique stories to tell, and one of our favourite parts was just the people we met and lifelong friends we made. We cannot recommend this camp highly enough, to anybody interested - especially aspiring leaders or people interested in being an exchange student or studying abroad later on. If you have applied for 2023, our complete advice would just be to go for it. Don't worry about missing out on school, sporting commitments, or anything else - what you take away from the camp will well outweigh anything you might miss out on.
By Angus, Declan, and the rest of the 2022 SSL team.

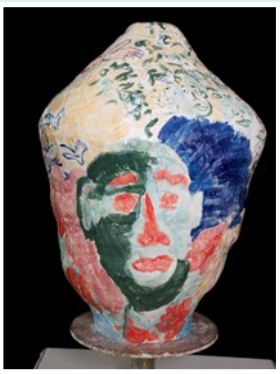




SEASON OF EXCELLENCE 2023

As part of the VCE Season of Excellence, the National Gallery of Victoria annually hosts the Top Arts exhibition, displaying outstanding student art-works from Victoria. Both School Captains Hannah Gorst (12 Studio Art) and Arty Foulkes (12 Art), have been shortlisted for their 2022 VCE visual artworks. This is Arty's second year being considered and the first time BHS has had two students shortlisted in the same year! If they are successful this will be the fourth consecutive year our students have been exhibited in Top Arts.

Hannah's two shortlisted paintings of Bathers in Newcastle



Arty's five shortlisted artworks series – a collection of paintings and ceramic sculptures

Top Designs

Gryff McConville has also been shortlisted for the Season of Excellence 'Top Designs' for his 12 Visual Communication and Design folio. If successful his architectural designs will be presented at the Melbourne Museum. Well done and good luck to our hard working and talented Visual Arts students!

BHS Careers News - November

What a big year it has been in the Careers and Pathways space. We have had a large number of Yr 9 and 10 students engage in a variety of careers-based programs in 2022. Congratulations to all the students who undertook one or more of these programs and hopefully gained a greater knowledge of the industry/career and have been able to narrow down their career focus as they move through years at Belmont High. All year 9's have been part of the Geelong Tertiary Futures program linked with The Gordon and thanks to Holly Woodhart and the Strive teachers for running this valuable program. We had almost 200 of our Year 9's participate in the Morrisby Career profiling and interviews earlier on in the year and this was a fantastic experience for the students and assisted them with their important 2023 subject selections. We have around 40 current year 9's stepping up next year in Yr. 10 to undertake a VCE Unit 1 and 2 subjects, so well done for those wanting to challenge themselves with this opportunity. Our Year 10's participated in the important House Leader Subject Selection Conferences, designed to assist students in the choices of pathway for 2023 – VCE or VCE-VM (formally VCAL). Students in Yr 10 continue to engage in Work Experience and we hope this has enabled them to find out more about industries, trades and employment, that potentially may turn out to be their career path.

We had close to 300 students participate in the VET in Schools program with students completing 29 different VET courses. As a part of their VET course a number of students participated in Structured Workplace Learning where they were able to gain more experience in their chosen fields in a workplace setting. SWL helps students increase their opportunities for networking with employers, gain confidence in the workplace and facilitate pathways to future employment.

We have had over 30 students commence a School Based Apprenticeship. Some of the areas they are completing include; Carpentry, Early Childhood Education and Care, Electrotechnology, Cabinet Making, Painting and Decorating, Hairdressing and Light and Heavy Vehicle Automotive.
